UNITED

WE STAND

In Memoriam

On September 11, 2001, the world changed forever in an instant. We dedicate this yearbook to all of those who were affected by the events of this tragic day. If it is true that a yearbook documents history, then let this page serve as a constant reminder that we shall never forget the victims of September 11, 2001.

Girls Cross Country

Although there were a lack of numbers, the Girls Cross Country Team still managed to have some close meets with opposing teams this season. With junior, Meghan Conklin joining the team, senior Monica Yerxa and freshman Michelle Rolph became the Rebels' top three varsity runners. The Rebels defeated Needham winning its first meet in two years. "We were all very excited and proud of ourselves after our win. We ran our best," said Conklin. Seniors Kelly Richall, Monica Ibraham and Marta Mazzowi ran excellent, decreasing their time throughout the season. Sophomores Jen and Kathleen Murphy had a great season also, running their hardest in every meet. The team has a thirst for running and was very enthusiastic throughout the season. We all had a great time meeting new people and creating great friendships. With the loss of four seniors, the girls will need some upcoming freshmen to join the team. Meghan Conklin and Michelle Rolph will be leading the way, having fun, and of course creating more competition for opposing teams in the new season.

Boys Cross Country

After a disappointing winless season last year, the boys had much to prove. Fortunately, the Rebels acquired a slew of new seniors who greatly impacted the outcome of the season. The Rebels started off strong with a tough nine point loss to an experienced Braintree team. A week later the team got its first win against a good Dedham team. Senior twins Nick and Sean Crowley finished first and second for Walpole. Finishing off the top three was freshman Doug Lawson, who had a strong season for the team. The Rebels proved that they were for real when they swept Needham away in a dual meet. The team had eight runners finish before the Rockets' fifth, capturing an exciting win. At the end of the regular season, the Rebels finished with a much improved 4-7 record. This was a giant step up from what the team produced just a year before. At the Conference Championship, the Rebels entered seniors Nick Crowley, Sean Crowley, Tristan Bandoni, Matt Ardine, and Jim Kelly. Sophomore Dan Parnagian and freshman Doug Lawson also ran the varsity race. The Rebels placed seventh out of eleven teams at the meet. The Rebels next ran in the Catholic Memorial Invitational where they fared well. All the effort of the team placed it into the Class C State Championship at the end of the year. The team entered the meet with runners Crowley, Crowley, Bandoni, Parnagian, Lawson, sophmore Matt Shea, and first year senior Jeff Donovan. The Rebels did well at the meet finishing 18th out of the 33 teams in the race in class-C. Hopefully this is more of what is to come for Walpole Cross Country. A young and talented group of men will now be looking to lead the team into further success in the future.

Field Hockey

The Field Hockey Team, led by tri-captains Jenna Cook, Christine Nannicelli and Jen McDavitt dominated the scene once again in 2001. After a heartbreaking loss in the South Sectional Finals last season, the Porkers vowed revenge. Coach Penny Calf, the key ingredient to the Porker success, rallied her team to a perfect season, as well as a Division I State Title. With 15 seniors, this team thrived on its experience and skills. The offense was comprised of senior Jenna Cook at center forward, senior Amy Cunniff at left wing, and sophomore Danielle Collins at right wing. Supporting the front line, senior Stephanie Bielagus, senior Jen McDavitt and junior Lisa Ranalli held a strong midfield. The defense impressed everyone by allowing only four goals during the regular season. Left and right halfbacks Lindsey LaSalle and Brianne Hughes along with center halfback Christine Nannicelli protected the net. Other key contributors to the Porkerfest included seniors: Kristen Brown, Lauren Macomber, Rachel Glynn, Katie Gentile, Erin Palmer, Allison Sprague, Katie Nottebart and Courtney Nottebart. The team produced a record number of league all-stars including Jen McDavitt, Christine Nannicelli, Jenna Cook, Amy Cunniff, Steph Bielagus, Kristen Brown, Lindsey LaSalle, and Lauren Macomber. With the loss of 15 seniors, next year's team has big shoes to fill.

Football

The Rebel Football Team, led by captains Joe McDermott, Kevin Greener, Tom McCarthy, Greg Shea, and Joe Calden, completed its season with a 7-4 record. Leading the Rebels was first year head coach Dan Villa, whose previous experience includes playing for the New England Patriots and Kansas City Chiefs. The season encompassed some outstanding individual efforts. Kelton Francis preserved the win against Braintree with a field goal block. Jim McAvoy kept the Norwood game interesting by returning a blocked punt for a touchdown. Bill Shea took a hand-off for an 80 yard touchdown run against Norwood. Coleman Cecca was a strong force all year, anchoring the defensive line. The offensive line was led by quarterback Dave Galt and Chris Decembrele was also a major offensive threat. Kevin Greener and Joe Calden were selected as Bay State League All Stars. Although the goal of competing in the Superbowl was not achieved, the team remained united with the small number of seniors they had. The 11 seniors worked hard during the season and in preseason to set an example for all of the underclassmen. The Rebels did achieve a victory over Weymouth on Thanksgiving Day with an exciting score of 28-20. Leadership, pride, and motivation were three of the main ingredients for the Rebels success. This Rebel Football Team was an excellent example of "Rebel Pride."

Cheerleading

The 2001-02 Rebel Cheerleading squad had some great accomplishments this year, and were led by tri-captains senior Ashley Tippie, and juniors Taryn Antoniou and Ashley Wickham. The squad placed second place in the Shepard Hill Invitational, in Dudley, Massachusetts. The twenty cheerleaders worked hard throughout the season, as well as atteding a four day camp at Boston University over the summer, where the girls perfected their stunts, dance routines, and cheers. Although the squad started their season a bit slow, by mid-October their routine was nearly perfect. Leading the squad were second year coaches Courtney Saulnier and Bria Gough. Both coaches have been members of the Framingham State College and Trinity Elite cheerleading squads.

Girls Soccer

The 2001 Rebels Girls Soccer Team had an extremely successful season led by tri captains Meryl Carberry, Lisa Bielenin, and Sarah Taglienti. Initially, the loss of the graduated seniors provided a challenge for the team, but the 11 current seniors, along with the 11 juniors, and two sophomores stepped up and filled the open positions with great ease. The team posted a 10-2-9 record, and qualified for the state tournament for the third consecutive year. The girls advanced to the South Sectional Semi-finals where the season ended after a hard fought loss to Plymouth North. Along the way, the team set some new school records. The team had the fewest losses in Walpole High history, as well as the most ties, and the longest unbeaten streak. There were some great season wins, including the 1-0 victory over Needham and a tournament victory over Canton achieved after a double overtime and eight penalty kicks. The All Stars this year included Meryl Carberry, Sarah Taglienti, Lisa Bielenin, Ashley Collins, and Bridgitte Carrie. The team was ranked 20th in Eastern Mass by the Boston Globe, a commendable accomplishment. As in the words of Jayne Bethony and Kathleen Ryan, "This is it, Rebs!"

Boys Soccer

The boys' soccer team's 2001 season was one to remember. With only three returning starters, the team knew that they had the incredible task of rebuilding an entire team. Led by co-captains Lucas Gormley and Ryan McAleese the team began to take shape. As the season passed the team began to take form and its record began to improve after a slow start. Challenging tough competition the entire season, the boys managed to finish the season with a 6-10-2 record. Two of this season's highlights were close wins over Dedham and Brookline. The season had a dramatic finish when the Rebels missed a shot at the post-season tournament by one point. The defense was comprised of seniors Mike Morris, Matt Brady, Justin Powers, junior Peter Butera, and goalie Nick Moise. Offense and mid-field players included seniors Matt Lipsett, Ryan McAleese, Luke Gormley, Brendan Mercier, and juniors Mike Anello, and Sean O'Keefe. This years all-stars included captain Ryan McAleese, senior Mike Morris, juniors Mike Anello, Peter Butera. Overall the team had a successful season and has good outlooks for next year's team.

Golf

The golf team had an exciting and fun season this year with even greater expectations for the year to come. In the 2001 season the Rebels finished with a 9-8 record which is the first winning record in quite some time. This record was achieved with consistent play by the leaders of the squad, and timely play by underclassmen such as John Anzlovar, and David Gerth. Despite their outstanding regular season play their post-season accomplishments were even more monumental. The Rebels sent three team members, Brian Kirby, Chris Brundrett, and Mike Loring to the Bay State Meet and ended up in second place for the team competition. Kirby placed second in the individual standings with a 75. The Rebels also finished well in the State Qualifier just missing the team qualifier by a single golf stroke. Even though the team was unable to advance in the State's, Brian Kirby tied for seventh which qualified him for the State Championship. To sum it up this season was impressive and left high hopes for future Walpole golfers.

Swimming

This year the Girl's Swim Team had a very successful season. It finished with its best season ever. Their record was 9-3, finishing fourth overall. The swimmers also had their biggest team ever, which consisted of 30 swimmers. Since the addition of nine new freshmen, the team now had five divers and many swimmers eligible to swim in any event. The girls worked very hard to improve their times and make States and Sectionals. Each day they had to travel to Blue Hills in Canton to practice. The team was coached by Cheryl Cavanaugh and new assistant coach, James Spencer, who encouraged the girls and taught them techniques to improve. They were led by senior captains Laura Donovan, Nicole Smith, and Lindsay McDonough. Among the other seniors were Jessica Fallon, Caroline Costa, and Mary Thayer. Kerri Kennedy, Laura Donovan, Julianne McCormick, and Vanessa Smith all qualified for Sectionals. Kennedy and Smith also qualified for States. The swim team worked hard this season, and the work paid off when the team achieved its best record in the swim team's 20 year history. Next year, the team looks forward to improving its times and to having more people qualify for Sectional and States. The Rebels will be led by captains Julianne McCormick, Vanessa Smith, and Tiffany Travers.

Volleyball

The Rebel Volleyball team's season ended at 8-8, leaving them to qualify for the first round of the State Tournament against Westboro. It seemed the the Rebels enjoyed their home crowd, winning five out of eight of the home matches. One exciting victory occurred when the Rebels came out firing with a win to end Norwood's winning streak. The last home match for the Rebels, which was the event of "Senior Night" was against Needham, and the Rebels played exceptionally well and won two out of the three matches. Among the senior starters were tri-captains Corey Alexander, Kristin Collins, and Carilyn Tately. The three leaders were also chosen as as Bay State League all-stars. Also contributing to an excellent season were seniors Melissa Colleran, Kerrie Mandeville, Katie O'Brien, and Shanna Thunell, and juniors Kelly Glennon, Liz Capone, Kaitlin Carlton and Liz Donnelly. The Rebels worked hard throughout the season, and it showed when they appeared in the State Tournament. Head coach Lisa Cyr led the Rebels and also plan to return next season. The hopes for next years team are high with the goal of competing again in the State Tournament.

Boys Winter Track

The Boys Winter Track team took an impressive step up from last year. They finished the season with a 3-2-1 record and took second place in the Herget Division, the highest placing in recent memory. The team this year was lead by senior captains Nick Crowley, Jeff Donovan, and Matt Hunt. Veteran Hunt and newcomer Coleman Cecca made it evident that Walpole was a worthy opponent in the shot put. High Jumpers Jim Kelly and newcomer Jon Galanis bested an impressive 5'8". The Hurdles were the gimmie event for the team this year. Donovan, Kelly, Lucas Gormley, and Tony Larkin were a feared bunch to race against. Donovan, a four year letter winner took third place at the Conference Championship and was named Conference All-Star. The four of them together combined for a school record shuttle hurdle race that placed fourth in the entire state. Matt Brady was the big surprise though, taking his 1000M time down consistently every meet to earn himself deserved respect. The real story of the year though was the 4X800 team which consisted of both Crowleys, Peter Butera, Dan Parnagian, and Adam Brierley. The team set an indoor school record and placed first at the Class C Relays. They took that momentum into the Class Championship where they finished fourth, qualifying them for the All-State Meet. At the All-States, the team took an impressive eleventh place finish in the entire state. With twelve seniors leaving, the team has a big job ahead of them next year.

Girls Winter Track

The girls 2001-2002 Winter Track team enjoyed a very successful season. They finished 3rd in the Bay State Conference Herget Division. The team was led by captains Lisa Bielenin and Meryl Carberry, and seniors Erin Black and Meghan O'Toole. This year the girl's team gained many great athletes who will lead the team to great success in the future. Everyone contributed their part to make this an enjoyable season. Many clutched third places were gotten in times when we needed them. The 2001-2002 season had many high points. The season started out with a loss to powerhouse Natick, but then the girls were off and running as they went on to beat Dedham, Milton and arch-rival Norwood. In the final interdivisional meet against Framingham, many people had their personal bests. Erin Black capped her career with a personal best jump of 4'8''. The Freshman/Sophomore Auerback meet had some great showings, especially Caitlin Grant in the long jump, Whitney Dziama in the 55, Leanne Forsberg in the 1000, and Sarah Kiewlicz in the 300. At the State Class C Relays, the Girls Sprint Medley of Lisa Bielenin, Whitney Dziama, Meryl Carberry and Anneka Landgraf place 2nd. The 4x400 relay team of Lisa Bielenin, Meryl Carberry, Meghan O'Toole, and Anneka Landgraf placed 4th at the Class C championships and went on to break the school record time in the 4x400 at the MIAA All-State meet.

Girls Basketball

The girls basketball team returned this season with one goal in mind, winning the state championship. The girls accomplished their goal and ended the 2001-2002 season with a record of 25-1. The Rebels had an amazing regular season For the fourth year in a row, the girls captured the Bay State League title. One reason for the Rebels success was the stacked roster, filled with seniors returning for their final year. The team was made up of eight seniors including starters Jenna Gale, Marta Mazzowi, Kerri Stumpo, and Co-Captains Jenna Cook and Nicole Wolff. Wolff, who transferred to Walpole in her junior year, led the team on the court averaging 23 points per game and ending the season with over 2,000 career points. Wolff was also named the McDonalds All-American top player in the nation. Other seniors on the team include Ashley Collins, Mary Thayer, and Kristen DiCalogero (who was sidelined this season with a torn ACL). Coming off the bench, contributing big minutes were junior Kathleen Ryan and sophomore Danielle Collins. Rounding out the roster were juniors Jessica Maynard, Katie Munroe and sophomore Jessica Black. After the regular season, the Rebels headed off to the state tournament. The team breezed by opponents Mansfield, King Philip, Fontebonne, Randolph, and Central Catholic. After five great wins it was time to go to the Worcester Centrum to meet Waconah in the Division 2 State Championship. The rebels won 58 to 33 and clenched the first state championship for girls basketball since 1995. It was an impressive season and everyone was extremely proud of the Rebels. As for next year, many will be lost to graduation, but the remaining Rebels will be back defending their title.

Boys Basketball

After struggling these past six years , Walpole Boys Basketball finally got the ball bouncing and was able to finish the season third in the Boys State Herget Division. The team was lead by Seniors Tom McCarthy and Joe McDermott. With the leadership and hard work of these captains, this years team finished just under .500. This team was coached by John Johansen, Coach Brown, and Coach Wright. "It was a great year; we surely can't hang our heads for not making the tournament. We have battled our way to becoming the Bay State League's most improved team" stated Coach Johansen. McCarthy and McDermott were honored to be the captains of such a great team during such a great year. Certainly, the underclassmen players were a huge part of the teams success. Each member of this team undoubtly earned their positions. Key contributers include: Matt DiCalogero, 5'10" point guard, Matt Wolff, 6' 2" shooting guard, and Tim "Chief" Clifford, 6' 10" center. There was also a lot of hard work and key baskets from Brian Hartnett, Mike Anello, and Danny Elwood. "This year was certainly a fun and an enjoyable season. I can't wait to come back, next year, and see this basketball team take over the Bay State League!" exclaimed McCarthy. With the loss of only two seniors, the future is wide open for next year's team.

Wrestling

The Rebels had a season of individual accomplishments. Led by Barry Greener for the last time the team ended the season with a record of 4-19 and ranked fourth in the Bay State League. Seniors Kevin Greener, Kevin Brady and Greg Shea were selected as captains and provided the leadership that this strong team needed both on and off the mat. Kevin Greener ended his high school career with the a record of 122 wins and 32 loses. He leaves Walpole with the most wins in Rebel history and was named wrestler of the year by the Bay State League. Kevin Brady finished his season with 18 wins and qualified for the state tournament. Senior Greg Shea had a great season with 25 wins and a trip to the state tournament and was named a Bay State League All-Star. Next, senior Ryan McAleese and junior Joe Fraser, two of Walpole's best wrestlers, fell to injuries during the season and had to watch the action from the sidelines. However, both managed to become Bay State League All-Stars. Finally, junior Pete Loescher had a state qualifying season with 20 wins. With the lose of this talented group of seniors and the retirement of Barry Greener, next year's team will have big shoes to fill.

Hockey

This year was a trying one for the Rebels. Starting out the season with new head coach, Bill Guisti, and assistants Scott Meehan and Tom Shaughnessy(who all came from Needham), the Rebels gave it their all to try to make it back to the tournament. However, it was not to be and the Rebels would have to take joy in their individual accomplishments. The season was highlighted by wins over rival Dedham and Natick and a tie against Norwood. Overall, this was a season filled with injuries and a mid-season skid that made it impossible for the Rebels to recover. However, the season ended on a positive note as the Rebels sent three players to the All-Stars. Seniors Kyle Monahan, Jeff Lamoureaux and Dan Colleran were recipients of this most prestigious honor. With eight seniors graduating, next year's team will be a team of new faces and possibilities. The graduating seniors would like to thank the coaches and fans for all their support.

Gymnastics

No other Rebel sports team could claim that they had a more enjoyable season than the gymnastics team. Each member was a true teammate. Although the girls got off to a rocky start, they improved tremendously with the expert coaching they received from Stacy Coleman, Jonas Contakos, Melissa Flamligetti, and Christine Lanzoni.
The three captains, Michelle Bradbury, Stefanie Garske, and Kristen Ridge were the key to the team's success. Not only did they show their great spirit, motivation, and creativity, they were also positive role models for the whole team. "I am proud of the close family-like relationships that we've developed over the season," commented captain, Stef Garske. The hardworking underclassmen improved their skills during practice. Victoria Lambergs, Michelle Bradbury, Laura-Kate Cavanaugh, Colby Cecca, and Emily Eklund were all strong contributers to the team's scores. Christina Galonska could be considered the team's star on the bars while Lindsey Smith and Katie O'Brien were never caught taking a rest. As Stef Garske perfected the floor routine, Kristen Ridge contributed to the coaching side of the sport. Coach Stacy and the seniors leave the team with a concrete base for next year. Kristen Ridge concluded, "When the girls learned to overcome their fears, they realized all that they could achieve."

Girls Spring Track

The 2002 Walpole High School Girls Track team coached by Mr. Chris Reeve, led by Captains Lisa Bielenin, Meryl Carberry and Erica Pritchard, have won one meet this year, but this is impressive considering the small number on the girls team. The team consisted of only sixteen girls, who competed against teams of thirty or more at every meet. The 4 by 800 team had a great performance at the Class C Relays which continued into the All-State Meet. They were unseeded at the beginning of the Class Relay meet, but after lapping the competition, they placed fifth overall. They improved their time by over 15 seconds, running a 10:11.2. The runners of this event included seniors Jen McDavitt, Lisa Bielenin, Sophomore Jill Moynihan, and Freshman Katrina Dold. Throughout the year, the girls team relied on consistent scoring in field events and the competitive edge of the mid-distance and distance runners, such as Christine Monahan in the two mile and Jen McDavitt in the one mile. Other reliable scorers included Meryl Carberry in the long jump, Lisa Bielenin in the sprinting events, and Erica Pritchard in the discus and shot put. We will miss our seniors that are leaving; however, the strong core of individuals that remain are sure to continue the type of success we have enjoyed.

Boys Spring Track

The Walpole High Boys Track Team showed much promise right up to the end of the season. Led by Mr. Tim Giblin, the team won more meets this year than last year. A large part of the success was due to captains Jeff Donovan, Coleman Cecca, Peter Butera and Matt Hunt. At various meets, Matt Hunt, Coleman Cecca, and Dan Zozula have all placed first for the discus. Further, Mike Morris was one of the leagues premier javelin throwers, consistently placing first in the javelin throw. His strong performances were backed up by Erwin Francois and Joe Millette, also reliable place holders. The shot put event was carried by captains Coleman Cecca and Matt Hunt. The running events were lead by Peter Butera and Dan Parnagian. Parnagian was successful throughout the year in the sprinting events, and Peter Butera qualified for the class meet in the 800 Meter. The hurdling events were dominated by Jeff Donovan, Tony Larkin and Jim Kelly. Donovan had the league leading mark in the 300 meter hurdles. The team wishes to thank both Mr. Giblin and Mr. Reeve for all their help and guidance along the way. Next year will be a trying year for the Rebel runners since a large majority of the team has been lost to graduation.

Girls Lacrosse

The 2002 Walpole High School Girls Lacrosse Team had a rebuilding year this season which was the direct result of the loss of seven of last year's starters to graduation, and the decision of their former coach not return to the program. As always, the show must and did go on. Although the Rebels were in a tough situation, Neil Cleveland stepped up from assistant and assumed the role of head coach . Next, there were still seven returning varsity players and they put forth their best effort. The team was led by co-captains Shannon Kelly and Meghan O'Toole, fellow seniors Gwen Puglia and Erin Black, and returning juniors Molly Desmond, Cori Giampietro and Simone Kelly. The Rebels met some tough competition this year but managed to have a few landslide victories of their own. As the season progressed the young team discovered their strengths and weaknesses. The Rebels ended their season with a record just slightly under 500. The graduating seniors would like to thank the coaches, parents and players for all their support throughout the season. Boys Lacrosse

The 2002 Walpole High School Boys Lacrosse Team returned to erase the reputation of years past. The team depended on every player to contribute and it was this team unity that allowed the team to have one of its most successful seasons. The Rebels offense tore into the teams they played. It was led by the scoring of Adam Trip and Sean Crowley. Also, the Rebels depended heavily on the midfield which ran two very strong lines. It was these strong lines that allowed the team to out run their opponents to each end of the field. The team was said to have one of the strongest defenses in the Bay State League. It was anchord by All-Star, Jeff Lamoureux. The defense played with the intensity that coach Jason Andelo needed in his run as the Bay State Coach of the year. The Boys Lacrosse Team broke and set many records this season. One noteworthy accomplishment was qualifying for the state tournament. This was the first time in the history of the program that the team made it to the tournament. Although tournament victory was eluded, this team ended the season as winners in the eyes of all those who witnessed the magical season.

Softball

With tremendous leadership from a strong core of seven seniors, the Rebels posted a 22-0 regular season record, capturing the Bay State Conference Herget Division Title, and ending the season with an impressive number three ranking in Eastern Massachusetts. The infield consisted of all seniors and included 1st baseman Meghan Murphy, 2nd baseman Ashley Collins, Meghan Oberaker at third base, and Sarah Taglienti at shortstop. Pitcher Christine Nanicelii, and Catcher Jayne Bethoney rounded out the infield spots. In the outfield, the Rebels got exceptional play from senior Allyson Lipsett, junior Rachel Bethoney, and sophomore Danielle Collins. Deservingly, all seven seniors were awarded for their great efforts by being selected to the All Star team. Tri-Captains Meghan Murphy, Christine Nanicelli, and Sarah Taglienti achieved First team honors, along with Jayne Bethoney. Taglienti was also awarded league MVP for the Herget Division. Although the starting nine carried the team all year long, many contributions were made by Liz Capone, Katie Munroe, Laura Murphy, Michelle Slavin, and Alissa Gillis. This year's graduating class will be sorely missed, but next year the Rebels will be back and ready for action. Hopefully, the tradition will continue.

After coming off an 11-11 season last year, the Rebels had much to prove as they began the hunt to return to the top of the Bay State League where they enjoyed previous success. The Rebels were led by tri-captains: Senior Matt Lipsett, senior Kevin Greener and junior Chris Decembrele, one of the few junior captains during Coach Tompkins reign as varsity coach. The team was young consisting of only three seniors. The Rebels started the season strong with a 5-2 record and seemed to be very optimistic at that point due to their good record and overall play. The pitching was a pleasant surprise and was led by senior Nick Howard, junior Tom Hart, and sophomore Tyler Thorton. Also, juniors pitchers Ryan Young, Bill Shea and Nick Moise saw some action from the bullpen. One of the key points in the season was the emotional win against the Norwood Mustangs under the lights. The Rebels were led by the three seniors that night and came away with the win that once again clinched a tournament berth. The Rebels finished 14-6 and 11-5 in the league which earned them a share of the Herget Title. The Rebels were seeded 6th in the Division 1 South Tournament. With the loss of only three seniors, next year looks like a winner.

Girls Tennis

While the Walpole High School Tennis Team may not have had a winning season, all of the girls improved their game. Walpole lost four seniors from last year, and the inexperienced team knew the season would be difficult, even under the capable leadership of second year coach Christopher Jean. Winning only two games - one against Norwood and one against Dedham- the girls nonetheless persevered with their positive attitudes and enthusiasm. Co-Captains and singles players Courtney Day and Monica Ibrahim helped maintain team morale by practicing and playing hard each day of the season. Strong support came from second singles player Allison Shaw, who displayed determination in every one of her matches. Doubles players Katherine Lawson, Lisa Taylor, Julie Becker, and Meg Lovering provided excitement in each match, fighting to the last point every time. Three newcomers to the sport this year, seniors Corey Alexander, Kristin Collins, and Katie O'Brien helped the squad out through their enthusiasm, team spirit, and determined play. Next year, five of seven varsity players will be returning as the team is bidding farewell to Katherine Lawson and Monica Ibrahim. Coach Jean feels the best is yet to come for Girls Tennis as most of the squad returns to the courts next year having developed sound fundamentals and a winning attitude.

Boys Tennis

The big word for the tennis team this year is improvement. The team had only three wins last year and this year it had four. The singles lineup was charged by senior captain, Rory Panagotopulos, sophomore sensation, Mike Miller, and greatly improved junior, Jon-Erik Tryggestad. All three of the singles players pulled out upset victories this season. Panagotopulos against Needham and Miller and Tryggestad against Natick. Also, the doubles teams had success this year. The first doubles team, of juniors Brendan Cochrane and Ross Chang, although struggling to gain many victories gave opponents trouble by combining their power and strategy. The second doubles team was led the team with wins this past season. The unique tandem of junior John Guy and sophomore Brien Fagan balanced itself and created victories where victories did not seem possible. Next year the Rebels will loose powerhouse Rory Panagotopulos and Ross Chang to graduation (That's right Ross Chang is also a super genius). Their spots will be filled by top players Drew Bering, Jared Randhawa, and Jon Macmillan.

Graduation

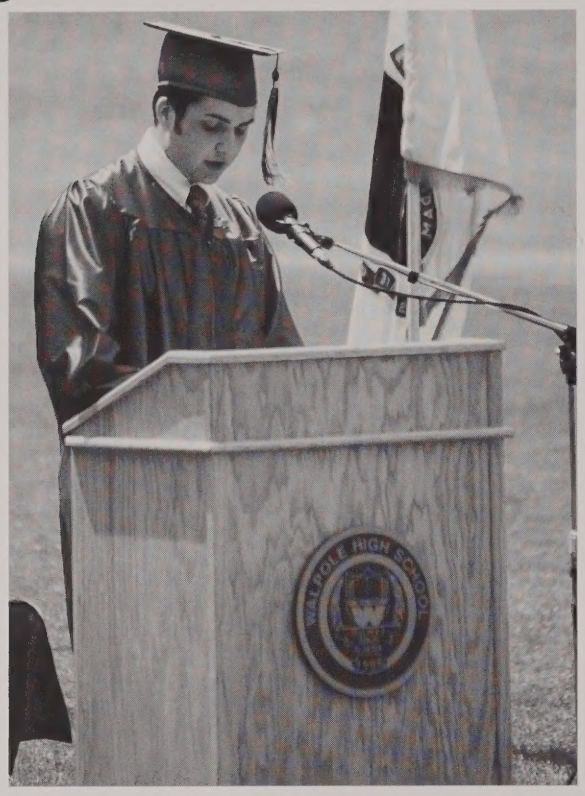
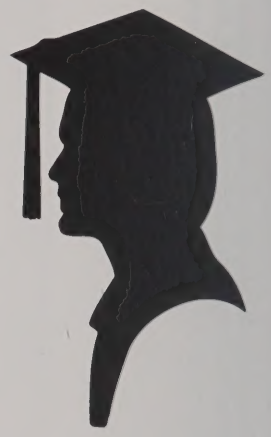
Senior Class President: Jon Galanis





Thank you Dr. Sambuceti. As President of the Class of 2002, I am privileged to welcome the Town Moderator, Mr. Brady, the Selectmen, Members of the School Committee, Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Couture, Walpole High School Principal, Dr. Sambuceti, faculty, honored guests, parents, family, friends, and fellow graduates to this commencement ceremony.

We gather here today to celebrate a great change in all of our lives. Parents are watching their children grow into adults. Friends are parting and teachers are saying goodbye. Even now, with all of us here together, the nostalgia is already setting in. We'll miss the good times, our classmates, our teachers, and all of the memories we have shared at Walpole High, but we will move on.

Helen Keller once said "When the door of happiness closes, another opens, but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one that has been opened for us." One door has closed today. High school is over. We will never again see one another every day. Never again will we be able to play high school sports, be in high school clubs, act in high school plays, or perform in high school bands. All that is left of high school after today will lie in our memories. These memories will stay with us for the rest of our lives and I can confidently say that I will look back and smile.

These past four years have passed so quickly, yet the class of 2002 has accomplished so much. Many of us contributed to a blood drive held in the gym hosted by our Student Council this spring. In response to the tragedy of September 11th, we organized a candlelight vigil last November for the entire Walpole community. Our national honor society has been involved in numerous community service projects benefiting both Walpole High School and the Walpole community. Our athletic program at Walpole High has continued to be strong and our girls' field hockey and basketball teams are both state champions. Talents have been showcased through our Art, Music and Drama programs. Our Academic Decathlon team hosted the state finals and this year placed 6th. The class of 2002 is filled with talented, caring individuals who collectively have done many things worthy of praise.

Our class has accomplished all of this even in the midst of construction. Thanks to the support of our town's voters, a transformation was made possible. We lived through the construction and dealt with the inconveniences. Living through the construction of the school has left us with some memories unique to our class. We trudged across the parking lot in rain or shine to Plimpton and ignored the chain link fenced path that led us there. We walked into school under an ugly wooden entranceway. We walked by the hallway with the "Warning – Asbestos" signs on the way to get our cold lunches in the lower gym. We were here when we had to walk outside to get to the cafeteria and to access the old English and social studies wing. Where there used to be tennis courts is now a parking lot, and where there used to be parking there will soon be tennis courts. We were here when the new science, math and language and social studies wings opened. Future classes will now be able to attend school in a modern, improved building. Walpole High School is no longer an antiquated facility but rather a source of pride to the community.

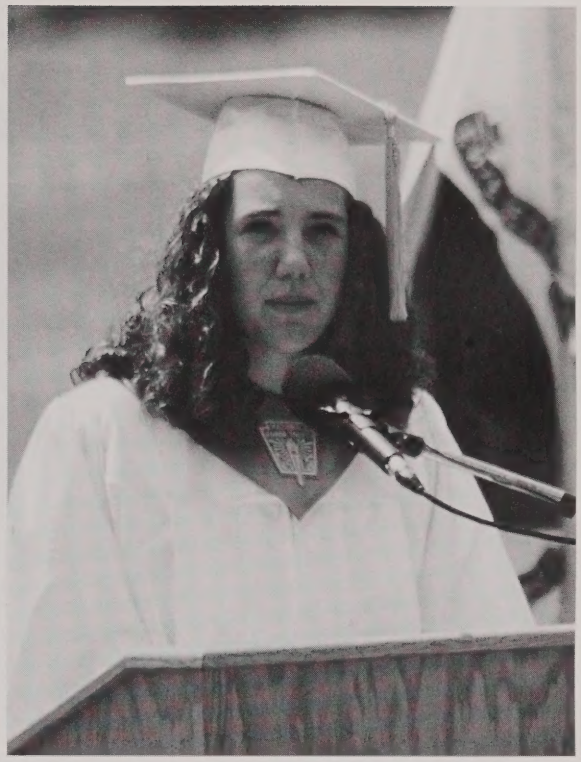
Now it is time for us to focus on the other door. Many people have greatly influenced our lives. We have been taught by our parents, our educators and our friends. A Chinese proverb states "Teachers open the door, but you must enter by yourself." Where this door leads will be different for each and every one of us. It leads to college, the Armed Services, and to careers. Over these past four years I have gotten to know most of my classmates quite well. I have complete confidence that each of us will pass through our door into this new stage with our heads held high and our minds open.

I am proud of myself, and I am proud of our class. I know that after this summer, when we disperse around this country and the world, each of us will realize where our door leads. We, the class of 2002 will prove to be the talented and intelligent people that I know we are.

In closing, I would like to thank our parents, our teachers, our friends and family members and anyone else who has helped us realize our great achievements. I would like to wish all of you the best of luck in your future endeavors and thank you for a great four years.

On behalf of the Class of 2002, I would like to present our class gift to Junior Class President Brian Hartnett. Our gift to Walpole High School is a grandmother clock made by Wood Technology teacher Mr. McCluskey. The clock is being displayed in the school's main office

Valedictorian: Katherine Lawson



The Town Moderator, Mr. Brady; Selectmen; Members of the School Committee; Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Couture; Walpole High School Principal, Dr. Sambuceti; faculty; honored guests; parents; family; friends; and fellow members of the Class of 2002:

This is it, Class of 2002. Whether positive or negative, all of the experiences of the past four years have been leading us to this point in time. We have finished with one chapter of our lives and are about to embark upon the next. As we leave the protective atmosphere of Walpole High School, we will inevitably face many new and different people, circumstances, and challenges.

By their very nature, challenges are difficult. They push us, and test us, and encourage us to explore our own limits. However, there is one challenge that stands heads and shoulders above all the rest in terms of difficulty—and that is the search for the meaning and the purpose of our lives. We have already begun to make that journey and have started the process of shaping the course of our lives, but some of us are a little further along than others. Among us today are classmates who will enter the military or who will start their first "real" job. Others will continue their education and some already know exactly what they want to do after school. There are also many of us who still have not settled on a college major or on a career path. For those of us who have not yet formed clear plans for the future, the search will continue—and it may not be an easy process.

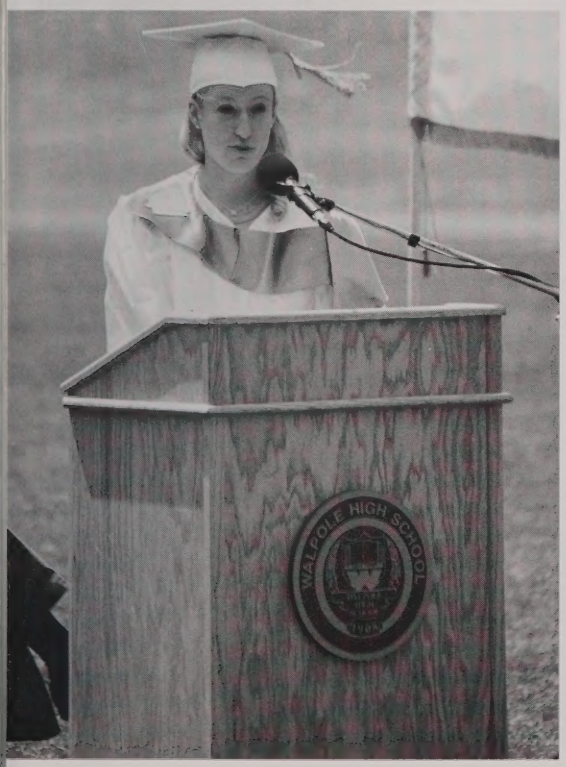
At one point or another, we have all heard someone use the phrase "the meaning of life." Perhaps you have even heard opinions offered on the subject. But, for all the discussion about "the meaning of life," I'm not sure there is one, correct answer to the question "why are we here?" I am convinced, however, that there is a meaning, a purpose, and a particular path for each one of us and that everyone who is present here today will, at one time or another, find himself or herself struggling to discover just what that meaning, purpose and path might be.

A story told by Robert Fulghum may help to decode that foggy phrase, "the meaning of life." Fulghum tells the story of a boy who asked his teacher "What is the meaning of life?" The teacher looked at the student for a long time and then pulled out his wallet and removed a very small, round mirror. He began by telling the student that, as a child in Germany, he happened to find a few small pieces of a broken mirror. He tried to fit them together, but when he couldn't, just kept the largest fragment. He scraped this piece of the mirror until it was smooth and round. As recounted by Fulghum, the teacher then told his student, "I began to play with it as a toy and became fascinated by the fact that I could reflect light into dark places where the sun would never shine—in deep holes and crevices and dark closets. It became a game for me to get light into the most inaccessible places I could find. I kept the little mirror, and, as I went about my growing up, I would take it out in idle moments and continue the challenge of the game. As I became a man, I grew to understand that this was not just a child's game but a metaphor for what I might do with my life. I came to understand that I am not the light or the source of the light. But light—truth, understanding, knowledge—is there, and it will shine in many dark places only if I reflect it. I am a fragment of a mirror whose whole design and shape I do not know. Nevertheless, with what I have I can reflect light into the dark places of this world—into the black places in the hearts of men—and change some things in some people. Perhaps others may see and do likewise. This is what I am about. This is the meaning of my life." Fulghum's story carries a powerful message for all of us.

Life has a different purpose and meaning for each of us. We are all different, but each of us has the ability to turn our lives into something important and useful. Each of us has a mirror that can be used to reflect light into the lives of others in one way or another. Especially in these times of fear and uncertainty following the horror of September 11th, it is more important than ever for each of us to discover how we can use that mirror to reflect our light—our gifts and talents—in meaningful ways. By shining light in dark places, we may be able to make important changes in the world in which we live.

As we step away from our childhood lives and into the future, we must remember that every experience, the good ones as well as the bad, teach us something about who we are and about our place in the world. I think it is helpful to keep in mind the words of Mark Twain when he said, "We should be careful to get out of an experience only the wisdom that is in it." September 11th was an experience that America will surely never forget. But, instead of letting that dark moment block out our light, the people of America, including the Class of 2002, must remember that the best judgments about people are based on the words and actions of individuals, not on ethnic background or religious membership. We need to find the lesson in that terrible experience and learn from it, rather than use it as an excuse to retreat from life and from the humanity around us.

I wish all of you the best of luck as you go forward in whatever adventures you have chosen to pursue. Remember that every one of us has a mirror and the ability to reflect light. I believe that our life's work is to determine when, how, and where we will choose to shine that light. I know that every member of the class of 2002 can meet this challenge and the many others that will come our way. We have been given the tools and knowledge to change the world, and I sincerely hope we use them. Farewell!



Salutatorian: Melissa Hardy

Members of the school committee, Superintendent Dr. Couture, Principal Dr. Sambuceti, faculty, honored guests, parents, family, friends, and fellow members of the class of 2002, when I was five years old I believed that I could fly. Seven attempts and a sprained ankle later, I realized that I was born without wings for a reason. When we are young, we believe many things to be true: our stuffed animals can talk to us, our security blankets can protect us from danger, we are constantly preyed upon by monsters, and we can do anything.

As we grow older, we face many harsh realities. We learn to let go of our idealistic childhood beliefs and replace them with facts and accepted truths. Every child runs home from school crying the day he discovers that the earth revolves around the sun, and not around himself. There are still some of us who have yet to learn this lesson.

This is an important point in our lives. We have everything ahead of us. Now is a good time to return to our childhood ways of thinking. We can do anything. We can be whoever we want to be. We can fly. I'm not suggesting that we go jump off of the bleachers with feathers super-glued to our backs. I am, however, urging everyone to take risks, try new things, and to never give up on our dreams.

We have the chance of a lifetime. We hold the rest of our lives in our hands. We can choose to approach our future with the eyes of a child: full of wonder, optimism, curiosity, and hope, or we can cower in fear and allow our inhibitions to prevent us from fulfilling our dreams.

When I was five years old, I attempted to fly. And as I stand here today, after thirteen years of walking on firm ground, I am ready to try again. I encourage you to do the same.
